Doug Boyd earned a bachelors degree in banking and finance from North Texas State University. He is President of DWB Enterprises, a custom residential construction company. He is also a member of the Sport Fishing and Boating Partnership Council, the Coastal Conservation Association, and the Texas Parks and Wildlife Department of Fisheries Shrimp Advisory Panel.

Boyd is an avid angler who enjoys fishing for reef fish and coastal migratory pelagics. He was appointed to the Council in 2010.